

Kids (under 10)

Q

When canning tomatoes, which part of the tomato do grown-ups usually take off first?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Tomato skins

FUN FACT

Tomato skins can peel off easily after dipping in hot water!

Source: PNW 300 Canning tomatoes and tomato products

Kids (under 10)

Q

When grown-ups put tomatoes and salsa into jars to save for later, what do they add to make the tomatoes taste a little tangy and help keep them fresh?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

A little lemon juice

FUN FACT

Lemon juice makes tomatoes taste a little sour, which helps keep the food safe and yummy!

Source: PNW 300 Canning tomatoes and tomato products

Q

What do grown-ups wear on their hands when they cut hot peppers for salsa?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Rubber or plastic gloves

FUN FACT

Gloves keep spicy pepper juice from touching your skin!

Source: PNW 172 Canning vegetables

Kids (under 10)

Q

What color is a ripe tomato picked for canning?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Red or other ripe colors

FUN FACT

Ripe tomatoes can be red, pink, yellow, or orange!

Source: PNW 172 Canning vegetables

Q

When canning salsa, why do grown-ups have to use tested recipes?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

To keep salsa safe and tasty

FUN FACT

Safe recipes help stop germs that can make you sick.

Source: PNW 395 Salsa recipes for canning

Kids (under 10)

Q

When making salsa with tomatoes and peppers, what should you NOT change in the recipe?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Ingredients and their amounts

FUN FACT

Changing ingredients can make salsa unsafe.

Source: PNW 300 Canning tomatoes and tomato products

Q

What do you usually hear from a jar lid to know canned tomatoes are safe and sealed?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

A pop sound

FUN FACT

The pop means the jar is sealed tight!

Source: PNW 300 Canning tomatoes and tomato products

Kids (under 10)

Q

When a grown-up is making tomato jars safe to keep, what big pot do they use to help?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

A special big pot that makes lots of steam

FUN FACT

That special big pot gets really steamy to keep the tomatoes fresh and safe!

Source: PNW 300 Canning tomatoes and tomato products

Kids (under 10)

Q

If a jar of canned tomatoes looks fuzzy or moldy, what should grown-ups do with it?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Throw it away safely

FUN FACT

Mold means the food is not safe to eat!

Source: PNW 300 Canning tomatoes and tomato products

Kids (under 10)

Q

What kind of tomatoes can grown-ups NOT use for canning because they may spoil the jar?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Overripe or frost-killed tomatoes

FUN FACT

Only good, firm tomatoes keep canned food safe.

Source: PNW 172 Canning vegetables

Q

When tasting salsa, which smell tells you there are hot peppers inside?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

A spicy, peppery smell

FUN FACT

Hot peppers make salsa smell spicy and strong!

Source: PNW 172 Canning vegetables

Q

What color are tomatillos that sometimes are used in salsa instead of tomatoes?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Green

FUN FACT

Tomatillos look like tiny green tomatoes with a paper husk!

Source: PNW 172 Canning vegetables

Q

When grown-ups make salsa, why do they put in a little lemon juice or vinegar?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

To make the salsa taste a bit tangy and stay fresh longer

FUN FACT

A little sour juice in salsa helps keep it yummy and safe to eat for more days!

Source: PNW 300 Canning tomatoes and tomato products

Kids (under 10)

Q

Which vegetable sometimes goes with tomatoes in sauce but should NOT be added more than the recipe says?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Onions

FUN FACT

Too many onions can make canned sauce unsafe.

Source: PNW 300 Canning tomatoes and tomato products

Kids (under 10)

Q

When tomatoes are dipped in hot water before canning, what happens that helps remove their skin?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

The skin splits and loosens

FUN FACT

Hot water makes tomato skins easy to slip off!

Source: PNW 300 Canning tomatoes and tomato products

Q

What should you see on the top (rim) of a jar before sealing it while canning salsa or tomatoes?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Clean jar rim with no food bits

FUN FACT

A clean jar rim helps the lid seal tightly.

Source: PNW 300 Canning tomatoes and tomato products

Kids (under 10)

Q

After canning, how long do canned tomatoes or salsa need to rest before checking if the jar is sealed?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

About 12 to 24 hours

FUN FACT

It takes time for jars to cool and seal properly!

Source: PNW 172 Canning vegetables

Kids (under 10)

Q

When peppers are hot and spicy, what should you NOT do after handling them without gloves?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Touch your face or eyes

FUN FACT

Hot pepper juice can sting your eyes and skin!

Source: PNW 172 Canning vegetables

Kids (under 10)

Q

What do grown-ups use to check if their pressure canner is working safely?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

A gauge or weight on the lid

FUN FACT

The gauge helps keep the cooking heat just right.

Source: PNW 300 Canning tomatoes and tomato products

Q

Which of these fruits would you NOT see in a jar of salsa made by a grown-up?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Bananas

FUN FACT

Bananas are soft and sweet, so grown-ups don't use them in salsa jars that need to be kept safe for a long time.

Source: PNW 395 Salsa recipes for canning