

Q

What makes a jar lid pop when you open canned tomatoes or salsa?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

The jar made a vacuum seal while cooling

FUN FACT

The popping sound means the jar is safely sealed!

Source: PNW 300 Canning tomatoes and tomato products

Kids (under 10)

Q

Which one should you add to tomatoes when canning to keep them safe?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Bottled lemon juice or citric acid

FUN FACT

Adding lemon juice helps keep canned tomatoes safe and yummy!

Source: PNW 300 Canning tomatoes and tomato products

Kids (under 10)

Q

If you want to can salsa,
what kind of recipe should you use?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

A tested recipe made for canning

FUN FACT

Safe salsa recipes are tested to stop bad germs from growing.

Source: PNW 395 Salsa recipes for canning

Q

True or False: You can change the ingredients in a canned salsa recipe and it will still be safe.

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

False

FUN FACT

Changing ingredients in salsa recipes can make the food unsafe to eat!

Source: PNW 395 Salsa recipes for canning

Kids (under 10)

Q

When canning tomatoes, why should you not use tomatoes from dead or frost-killed vines?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

They can make the canned food unsafe and poor quality

FUN FACT

Tomatoes need to be fresh and healthy for canning.

Source: PNW 300 Canning tomatoes and tomato products

Kids (under 10)

Q

What do you do to tomato skins before adding tomatoes to a canning jar?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Dip them in boiling water until skins split, then peel them off

FUN FACT

Peeling tomato skins helps the salsa taste smooth and fresh!

Source: PNW 395 Salsa recipes for canning

Kids (under 10)

Q

What color are tomatillos, a special kind of salsa ingredient?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Green and covered in a thin husk

FUN FACT

Tomatillos look like tiny green tomatoes with paper coats!

Source: SP 50-768 Tomatillos

Q

When making salsa, why do you need to use bottled lemon or lime juice instead of fresh?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Because bottled juice has the right acid to keep salsa safe

FUN FACT

The acid in bottled lemon juice helps stop bad germs in canned salsa!

Source: PNW 395 Salsa recipes for canning

Kids (under 10)

Q

What should you smell for after opening a jar of canned salsa?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

It should smell fresh with no bad or sour smell

FUN FACT

If salsa smells yucky, don't eat it-it's not safe!

Source: PNW 395 Salsa recipes for canning

Q

What should happen when you lift the lid after canning and cooling salsa jars?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

The lid stays down and does not pop when pressed

FUN FACT

A lid that doesn't pop means the jar sealed properly.

Source: PNW 395 Salsa recipes for canning

Kids (under 10)

Q

Which ingredient in salsa helps make it hot and spicy?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Peppers like jalapeños or green chiles

FUN FACT

Hot peppers can make salsa spicy and fun to taste!

Source: PNW 395 Salsa recipes for canning

Kids (under 10)

Q

When you take jars out of the boiling water canner, how long should you wait before moving them?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

About 5 minutes for the jars to cool a little

FUN FACT

Waiting helps keep jars safe and lets the seal finish forming!

Source: SP 50-768 Tomatillos

Kids (under 10)

Q

Can you can any kind of salsa recipe you want at home?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

No, only recipes that have been tested for safety

FUN FACT

Testing salsa recipes keeps your salsa safe from germs!

Source: PNW 395 Salsa recipes for canning

Q

Why do you remove air bubbles before sealing jars of salsa or tomatoes?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

To help the jar seal properly and keep food fresh

FUN FACT

No air bubbles help jars close tight and keep salsa yummy!

Source: PNW 395 Salsa recipes for canning

Kids (under 10)

Q

If a jar lid is bulging or leaking, should you eat what's inside?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

No, because it may have bad germs and be unsafe

FUN FACT

Never eat food from jars that bulge or leak; it's not safe!

Source: PNW 250 You can prevent food borne illness

Q

What should you do if you want to try a salsa recipe that is not tested for canning?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Freeze it instead of canning

FUN FACT

Freezing keeps salsa safe when the recipe is not tested for canning!

Source: PNW 395 Salsa recipes for canning

Kids (under 10)

Q

Salsa is a mix of things with different tastes. Which is NOT in salsa?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Chocolate

FUN FACT

Salsa has tomatoes, onions, and peppers, but no chocolate!

Source: PNW 395 Salsa recipes for canning

Q

What color should fresh tomatoes be for canning salsa?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Bright red, ripe and fresh

FUN FACT

Bright red tomatoes make the yummiest and safest canned salsa!

Source: PNW 395 Salsa recipes for canning

Kids (under 10)

Q

Why do you simmer salsa on the stove before putting it in jars?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

To make the flavors mix and to kill germs

FUN FACT

Cooking salsa helps it taste better and be safe to can.

Source: PNW 395 Salsa recipes for canning

Q

What should you do if you don't wear gloves when cutting hot peppers?

Kids (under 10)

ANSWER

Wash your hands well before touching your face or eyes

FUN FACT

Hot pepper juice can sting your eyes, so keep hands clean!

Source: SP 50-1003 Laws of salsa with recipes